

Ever Closer

By Patty Spencer

Verse one

So many times, I've come to You
Over and over again
You've always been my refuge
The place at where my sorrows end

Yet I'm longing for a closeness
And I'm hungering anew
Jesus, draw me closer to You

Verse two

You've been to me a brother
You've been my closest friend
You're more than just a counselor
You're the one in whom my life depends

Yet I'm longing for a closeness
And I'm hungering anew
Jesus, draw me closer to You

Chorus

I want to know You
I want to know You
Draw me ever closer, closer to You
I want to know You

Bridge

I won't be long, I'll hear that call
The trumpet will proclaim
Then I'll be home where I belong
In a moment I'll be changed

But for now my heart is longing
And I'm hungering anew
Jesus, draw me closer to You.
